

Ransom Township Residents Stormwater Program

Why is storm water run – off a problem?

- Storm water can pick debris, chemicals, dirt, animal waste, and other pollutants, flow into a storm sewer system, and empty untreated into the water bodies we use for swimming, fishing, and providing drinking water.
- Polluted storm water affects aquatic plants, fish and other aquatic organisms.